

NYSSCSW Staten Island Chapter Educational Presentation

"Sex and Social Work: What Happened to the Sex in Social Work?"

Presented by Lacey Sloan, Ph.D, LCSW.

Sunday, January 20, 2013 (note: date changed from what was printed on our brochure)

Location: College of Staten Island, Building 4S - Room 218

Time: 10am-1pm

This program is free For Members and CSI Social Work students

Non-Members - $15

2.5 CEU's

RSVP: Carol Pavin at carolpavin@verizon.net or Catherine O'Brien at cobriencsw@netscape.net

Presentation:

This educational presentation will explore the history of social workers as one of the primary helping professional to whom clients discuss sexual issues. Yet, no social work programs require courses in human sexuality and thus, there is much we must learn to meet the needs of our clients. Dr. Sloan will explore the various realms of human sexuality relevant to social work, such as sexual violence, sex work, STD's/HIV, LGBT issues and more, as well as how to respond to these issues from the micro and macro level.

Speaker:

Lacey Sloan, Ph.D., LCSW is an Associate Professor of Social Work and the director of the Social Work program at the College of Staten Island. Dr. Sloan has over 20 years of social work practice experience, including the areas of disaster relief, child welfare, sexual assault and domestic violence. Dr. Sloan is best known for her scholarship on sex work and sexual violence. She is recognized in the field for her work to end the practice of polygraphing rape victims.