Title: Creating Attachment with Couples: First Five Sessions

Description: This talk will not only provide an understanding of the fundamental dynamics that couples present, but also how the therapist can engage the couple so they commit to the process, and get them working in a productive manner.

Presenter: Glenn Berger, Ph.D., LCSW

Dr. Berger has been practicing psychotherapy since 1997. He received his Master's Degree in Social Work from New York University, and his PhD in Psychotherapy from the International University of Graduate Studies. He is licensed to practice by the State of New York.

He is a graduate of a 4-year Post Graduate program in Gestalt Therapy from the Gestalt Associates of Psychotherapy, NY. He is a certified practitioner of EMDR. He has studied the Imago method of relationship therapy with its inventor, Harville Hendrix. For more information-
