Date: Friday April 19th, 2013 from 6:00-7:45pm.

Where: St. Thomas Aquinas college,
Route 340 Sparkill, NY McNeils Dining Hall Board Room. Email if you need directions

An informational and networking opportunity for all social workers interested in developing, maintaining or transitioning to private clinical work.

The seminar will provide attendees with concrete information on the various ways in which social workers establish themselves in private practice. We will identify pathways from agency work to private practice, strategies in relocating a practice, implications of joining insurance panels, marketing and branding your practice and networking.

Additionally, If you are interested in transitioning from agency work or beginning a p/t practice, this seminar will provide clear and proven steps in how to make this happen. When relocating or re-establishing your practice this seminar can provide you with tools to increase your success. For those already established in private practice, come share your experience and network with local clinicians.

This Seminar is open to all society members for free and non-members $5.00. Social Workers practicing at any level are welcome to attend.

There will be networking opportunity so come with flyers, announcements, and business cards.

Refreshments will be served.
