

The New York Society of Clinical Social Worker, SI Chapter, is proud to present our next Educational Dinner Series

Featuring Philip Garippa, LCSW who will be presenting on "Infidelity and Sexual Compulsions"

Mr. Garippa has been practicing individual, marital and sex therapy for the past twenty-five years. He has a faculty appointment at Cornell-Weill Medical College as well as being a Clinical Supervisor in their Human Sexuality Training Program. Mr. Garippa is an AASECT Certified Sex Therapist and Certified Sex Therapy Supervisor as well as a former president of the board of directors of a NY State licensed non-profit adoption agency. Mr. Garippa's specialties include sex and marital therapy, anxiety and mood disorders, career and life choices, as well as adoption and infertility issues. Mr. Garippa believes in using an integrative approach to therapy, seeking to achieve a balance of family, work, friendships and personal fulfillment.

Friday, May 18, 2012

6:30–9:30 pm

At Nino's Restaurant

1110 Hylan Blvd.

Staten Island, New York 10305

(This is a 3-course dinner: salad, pasta and entrée, soda, coffee, tea)

Plus 2 CEU credits

$25members

$35nonmembers

RSVP: Cobrienlcsw@msn.com and send payment to Carol Pavin, NYSSCSW Treasurer at 1492 Richmond Road, Staten Island, New York 10304

Make check payable to Carol Pavin with memo on bottom left side "NYSSCSW Seminar".

** We can only offer this price if rsvp and payment is received before Friday, May 11, 2012. (Otherwise $45)

Due to discounted price, we are requesting interested persons to RSVP as soon as possible